Amazing Animals

To launch our new topic 'amazing animals' the Reception children shared their homework. They all researched an animal and shared their findings with the class. The children are exploring the life cycle of frogs and used their folding and sticking skills to create frogs.

Reception children have also started exploring the lifecycle of a butterfly. We were very excited to welcome some tiny caterpillars into Hedgehog Class and cannot wait to watch them change into butterflies. On the creative table the children have been busy creating caterpillars and butterflies.

After being very patient, Reception children were very excited to see the butterflies emerging from their cocoons. After their wings had dried out, they took them to the outdoor classroom and watched them fly off.

The children in Reception have been busy bees this term. They were very excited to welcome a visitor from Ruxley Beekeepers. They learnt lots of interesting facts about bees. They tried honey, put on beekeeper suits and had a look through bee goggles. They even learnt to do the bee wangle dance.

Pre-Reception were very lucky to meet the newly hatched Year 2 chicks this week, which are named Lavender and Rosie.

Continuing with Reception's topic 'amazing animals', we welcomed some wiggly visitors into class. The children have been fascinated, spotting the worms and watching them tunnel in the wormery.

Happy Birthday Shakespeare

To celebrate Shakespeare's birthday on 23rd April, the theatre group Divergent Drama facilitated an excellent, interactive workshop called 'Taste of Shakespeare' to Year 3. The children loved acting out scenarios from different plays to their peers. This has stirred their interest in wanting to find out more about Shakespeare's plays and poems. It was a wonderful experience.

Casting Shadows

In Year 1, the children have been investigating how the Earth's spin affects the shadows that the sun casts. In pairs, they drew around each other's shadow and then stood in the same spot throughout the day to see how the angle of the shadow changed. They also played a fun game which involved chasing and jumping on each other's shadows!

Dinosaur Adventures

Pre-Reception received a postcard from the dinosaurs telling the class that they were left on the train and they got off at Chislehurst and found themselves at Farringtons! We had to search around the school as they kept disappearing on adventures... we found them in the allotment, reception, forest school, the playground and the Chapel.

Refreshing Speech from Simon Leigh

On Thursday 16th May, we welcomed addiction counsellor and speaker Mr Simon Leigh to Farringtons. He delivered separate talks to Years 9 and 10 on the topic of street drugs. Simon's passion for educating adolescents and young adults on this topic comes from his unique perspective and experience of drugs.

He has served as an addiction counsellor, managed his own rehab and he was very open with the students about being in recovery himself. Although Simon himself is very much against the use of recreational drugs, his approach with pupils was very refreshing as he did not use scare tactics or focus merely on delivering the rather simple and all-too-familiar message of 'Don't do Drugs!'

The session was factual, engaging and based on many insightful stories and lessons learned. We were also pleased to welcome parents into school to hear him speak in the evening. We are sure to invite him back next year.

#iloveboarding

Our boarding students embarked on a culinary adventure with a ramen-themed supper! They dished up steaming bowls of flavourful broth, perfectly cooked noodles, and a variety of delicious toppings. It was a fantastic opportunity for our boarders to try a new cuisine and bond over a fun and tasty meal.

Our boarders were also able to enjoy a delicious Chinese-themed dinner!

Donning chef hats, boarders cooked up a storm! They put their teamwork skills to the test as they prepped and cooked a giant pan of delicious paella. We're sure there were plenty of happy faces around the dinner table that night.

Our fearless boarders traded their textbooks for paintball guns for an epic day of paintballing fun!

Singing Festival

Our Prep School Choir attended the IAPS Singing Festival at Benenden School. It was a truly joyous moment to see children collaborating and performing through the universal language of music. We were impressed by classic choral masterpieces such as Vivaldi's 'Gloria' and John Rutter's 'For the Beauty of the Earth'. The Farringtons Prep Choir did us proud in their solo item with Karl Jenkin's 'Adiemus' anthem. We are so grateful to Benenden for hosting us in their magnificent Centenary Hall.

Climbing Mount Kilimanjaro

In July, Mrs Long and I are taking on the challenge of climbing Mount Kilimanjaro.

We will be doing the challenge with two very dear colleagues in mind who are currently going through cancer treatment. We hope to raise money for charities chosen specifically by Mr Garwood and Mr Young, Brain Tumour Charity and Hayley's Heros respectively.

Climbing Mt Kilimanjaro is a massive challenge for many reasons. Spending 7 days and nights on a mountain, sleeping rough, without access to makeup, hairdryer and washing facilities is going to be a struggle for both of us. Every day we will be hiking for around 6 hours as we gradually climb nearly 6,000 metres. The hardest part of the trek is coping with the high altitude which can make the climb very tough - especially on summit night.

All money raised will go directly to the two charities. Thank you so much to parents and staff who have already donated. We hope to at least double what we have raised so far, so any support you can give is very much appreciated.

Global Ambassadors

Congratulations to our pupils who took part in the first ever Global Ambassador Trip to Kent College Pembury to meet other Global Ambassadors.

Both schools prepared a presentation to present to each other on World Fairtrade Day.

Our group of 13 pupils were split in to four groups to research four areas in preparation for our presentation which included:

Who are the 'World Fairtrade Organisation'? (James, Sofiay & Amaan)

What tools do the World Fairtrade Organisation provide? (Timofey, Keanu & Stefan)

What are the 10 principles of Fairtrade? (Joseph, Sanujana, Lilly & Helen)

Pathway of a Fairtrade product (Tanraj, Toby & Cephas)

Everyone did a great job and the presentation was superb. We then mingled with the Global Ambassadors from Kent College and decided on some collaborative next steps to boost the understanding and awareness of Fairtrade in both of our schools, so watch this space as their ideas were great to move forward with!

All pupils were fantastic role models (Ambassadors) for the school and it was a genuine pleasure to take them.

Mr Adam Doherty, Global Ambassador Co-ordinator
